Escolle Store (CAL-1184)

History: Honore Escolle, a Frenchman, came to Monterey in 1856 at the age of 21 and started the first French Bakery. He also experimented with making pottery and built a kiln in the rear of his house that he had purchased from Dr. James Stokes. He became a prominent merchant and a large land owner.

Description: Adobe commercial building with adobe walls to ceiling line and wood frame attic-story.
